Elizabeth Dickinson is a visionary leader and grassroots organizer who's willing to take on special interests and represent you. Here's why she wants to serve you as your Mayor:

-  To promote grassroots democracy through an 'open door' policy at the Mayor's office, where people will be treated with respect
-  To promote clean air, water, and energy through conservation and through renewable energy from wind and solar power
-  To promote economic and social justice through a living wage, affordable housing, support of small business, expansion of mass transit, and a good public education for all
-  To support the arts and the more than 3000 full-time jobs they provide in Saint Paul

How can we make our city more progressive?
